MATRIMONY IN FRANCE judgment of interest to foreign families of which members have contracted matrimountal alliances in France has been given in the Civic Cintri of Paris. The facts of the case were these .- M. do Brimont married about twd in Harbour early this morning. The follow years: before the case a daughter of Mr. and and Mrs. Penniman, Americans, No contract was drawn up, but the parents of the lady promised verbally, according to M. de Brimont, to make the young couple an annual allowance of 50,000f. as a marriage portion. The young wife died a few months back, leaving an infant daughter, and Mr. Penniman, who until then had regularly paid the money, refused to conthe recent maurication. Their expulsion is tinue it to the son in-law. The last ramed now brought a suit to enforce the continuance of the payment, as alimony for himself and daughter. The parents of the deceased lade. while offering to bring up the child, resisted the domand, on the grounds that the defendant was a anendthrift, that he had concealed hims. rous debia when he married, and had nince contracted new ones, and, moreover, that he was young, and might by his labour procure for himself sufficient resources. The tribund bowever, dooided that as De Brimont was without means of existence, and that as his own mother was not in a position of fortune to as ist her oon and gran daughter, the plaintiff lead a right to an alimentary pension from his wife's parents; and consequently condemned them to pay an approval sporouf 18,000f., of which 6,000f vere for M. De Brimont, and 12,000t. for his infant daughter.
